

I listen to K-LOVE every day and treasure it as a friendly companion as I commute to and from work. It always encourages me. I see K-LOVE stickers on dozens of cars daily, so I know they are listening with me. When I talk to other Christians, we agree that encouraging, uplifting radio programming is a breath of fresh air in this media climate of negative, hurtful, disgusting programming. Please support this station and all of us who thrive on it.